

Plano Curriculum

- The curriculum focuses on state standards.
- The curriculum is written in backwards design.
- Students explore: math, science, social studies, and language arts.
- Students participate in art, music, PE, and library.
- Students learn how to ask questions, find the answers and act on it.

PYP Additions

- IB scholars work with the Learner Profile daily.
- Math, science, social studies and language arts are transdisciplinary, connected to a global theme and explores big concepts.
- Music, PE, and library connects to themes and the learner profile.
- All scholars participate in Chinese Mandarin.