

Plano Independent School District
Business Services Division
Financial Services

Dear Donor:

Plano Independent School District was organized as a political subdivision of the State of Texas. Therefore, tax-exempt status approval is not required under the Internal Revenue Code, section 501©(3). Although the district does not possess a determination letter as requested, charitable contributions to the district qualify for deductions under the Internal Revenue Code, Section 170©(1):

© Charitable contributions defined:

For purposes of this section, the term “charitable contributions” means a contribution or gift to or for the use of:

(1) A State, a possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or the United States or the District of Columbia, but only if the contribution or gift is made exclusively for public purposes.

Please view Plano Independent School District as an educational organization that is not required to possess a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service.

Thank you for your consideration of the district as a possible donee.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Linda Madon". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Linda Madon,
Executive Director of Financial Services