Dear Parent/ Guardian:

We value your role in working to help your child achieve high academic standards. The following is an outline of some ways you and the Rasor staff can build and maintain a partnership to share responsibility for supporting your child's learning in the areas of reading and math.

School's Responsibility:

- Provide high quality curriculum and learning materials
- Provide you with assistance in understanding academic achievement standards and assessments and how to monitor your child's progress.
- Provide opportunities for ongoing communication between you and teachers through:
 - Annual parent/teacher conferences
 - Frequent reports regarding your child's progress
 - Opportunities to talk with the staff, volunteer in the classroom and observe classroom activities.

Student's Responsibility:

- Attend school regularly
- Come to school with necessary supplies for learning
- Complete and return homework assignments (if applicable)
- Conform to rules of student conduct

Parent Responsibility:

- Encourage your child to attend school regularly
- Encourage your child to show positive behavior and follow rules of conduct
- Review your child's homework (if applicable)
- Engage in family literacy opportunities such as reading
- Monitor screen time and encourage positive use of your child's extracurricular time
- Volunteer in your child's school and classroom if time or schedule permits
- Encourage your child to share something positive about their school day
- Attend parent/teacher conferences and participate in decisions relating to the education of your child
