PLANO ISD BOARD APPROVES RESOLUTION
CELEBRATING NATIONAL PRINCIPALS MONTH

PLANO, TX, October 20, 2021 – At their October 19, 2021, meeting, the Plano ISD Board of Trustees approved a resolution in recognition of National Principals Month, which is celebrated each October.

National Principals Month is an opportunity for district leaders, elected officials, parents, students, teachers, staff, school leaders and communities to celebrate and honor principals for their visionary leadership and tireless pursuit of success for each student.

Plano ISD is celebrating all month by featuring principals on district and school social media platforms. The community can participate in the celebration by sharing their appreciation messages on social media using the hashtags #ThankaPrincipal and #PISDDedicatedtoCaring.

National Principals Month is a collaboration between the American Federation of School Administrators (AFSA), the National Association of Elementary School Principals (NAESP), the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) and Congress.
