CODY MOORE RECONSIDERS POSITION AS PLANO SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL'S HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

PLANO, TX, March 4, 2020 – Plano Senior High School's newly named head football coach, Cody Moore, has decided to reconsider his recent appointment.

Moore apologized for the timing and expressed his appreciation to the school and district. "I want to thank Plano ISD for the opportunity," Moore said. "However, after further consideration and prayer with my family, I have decided to stay in Denton and continue building what we started four years ago."

Plano ISD Athletic Director Jeff Smith stated, "While we are disappointed, we are respectful of Coach Moore's decision, which he feels is in the best interest of his family."

Smith will be working closely with campus administration, the coaching staff and student athletes of Plano Senior High School during this transitional period.

The district will move forward to fill this position as soon as possible.
