

HOW "ROBIN HOOD"

IMPACTS PLANO INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Plano ISD is classified as "property wealthy" and subject to the state's Recapture ("Robin Hood") Tax. In school year 2018-19, Plano ISD's Robin Hood payment to the state is projected to be $208 million. This is more than 34% of your locally generated operating tax revenue. As of 2018-19, Plano ISD will have paid more than $1.9 billion in recapture since 1993.

PLANO ISD by the numbers

53,086
students served

33%
economically disadvantaged

14%
english language learners

How much per student does the state take?

$3,918
recapture dollars per student

How much per school does the state take?

$11.0M
approx. impact per senior high

$4.6M
approx. impact per high school

$3.7M
approx. impact per middle school

$2.0M
approx. impact per elementary